

December 2009

Dear guests and Majorca fans!

For most people the time between Christmas and New Year gives us a chance to take a breather and review the old year and make plans for the new one.

2009 was certainly not an easy year, the financial crisis and environmental concerns have dominated the news and sometimes it feels like it needs to get much worse before it gets better.

Personally, I look into the future positively. My wife and I will probably only spend one more winter living here in northern Europe and are already looking forward to the milder temperatures and the almond tree blossom that will characterise the future of our winter experiences in Majorca.

Michael Pohlmann and his wife Manuela are now our agents in Cala Mandia, and they are eagerly waiting for the new season. They will look after our guests and can offer the one or the other 'insider' tip of what to see or where to go.

Michael also runs a car rental in Cala Mandia, and I have been able to work out some good deals for you. If you book a car for a week in conjunction with a stay with us, you will get 10% discount and for 14 days he is offering 15%. From now on you will also be able to pick up and return the cars directly at the Airport. The prices for 2010 have not been set yet but if you are interested then please contact Michael directly over the following link: http://www.cala-mandia.com/auto_contact.html and he will get back to you as soon as possible.

I have now completed rewriting our website www.cala-mandia.com and all that is now required are a few new pictures from the garden and a short film that will I make in January and then release for you as soon as possible. Please check out the Website and as always, if you think that something is missing, simply let us know.

The bookings are now coming in and so far we have been able to meet all guests' desired dates in 2010. Also don't forget we are still offering a special price up to the end of April of 75.00 EUR per night.

We would be very pleased hear from you soon. If y prefer you can also reach us by telephone on + 49 4123 2245

My wife and I would also like to take this opportunity of wishing everyone a Happy New Year and good health and success in 2010

Regards
Paul & Lydia Staff
